

The Strategic Plan of Public Security Directorate
2016-2014

“The government also has a vital role in enhancing the level of public services it provides, consolidating the institutionalization of public work, enriching government policies and guaranteeing their stability, according to a clear vision and a specific working plan that tackles various challenges. To that end, we would like to emphasize the importance of building government plans and strategies through consultations with all relevant stakeholders, translating them into action plans that include methodologies that reflect local communities’ priorities in accordance with specific, publicly declared timelines.

Furthermore, the government must work towards implementing the visions outlined in the recent Speech from the Throne and related to the priorities of the executive authority’s mandate and its cooperation with other state branches in order to guarantee successful implementation of mutual responsibilities. There is also the need to activate the performance of the government apparatus through the launch of a white revolution in public work that guarantees its competence, quality and the provision of the best possible services to citizens, with the highest degree of transparency and openness towards both citizens and their representatives. On these bases, the government will be held accountable and its performance will be judged.”

LETTER OF DESIGNATION

To Abdullah Ensour

Introduction

Public security directorate performs the noble duties that deserve our intention because of providing security and safety to society making it develops at all walks of life.

Because of development escalation of at the international and regional levels , especially the use of modern technology in police operations and the instability in neighbored countries and its negative results , PSD responsibility has been doubled regarding the revision of strategic plans and programs to be prepared for carrying the responsibility and meeting the challenges in perfect manner. PSD has continued developing the capabilities to be, as always, the source of trust for international organizations and brotherly and friendly countries in line with international and regional police work standards.

In the framework of this understanding , PSD strategic plan 2014-2016 has come to guarantee the readiness of PSD units for police and security work in next stages seeking to provide the requirements of security and stability of citizens and home country in line with government work plan 2014-2016. May God protect Jordan, the people and the leadership of His Majesty King Abdullah Ben Al-Hussein.

Speech By The Director of Public Security

Development of public security directorate has reached to the degree of the most advanced countries of the world where police duties have practiced at all fields. PSD's achievements need to be sustained and developed via following the latest technology and ways to catch suspects and transfer them to the court. PSD seeks to develop also the delivery of daily police services by facilitating the proceedings and enhance them accordingly.

The main job of policeman is providing the security and protection for people and making the rule of law governs the relationship between police and citizens. PSD has a great background in dealing with deferent events which contains the freedom of speech over the last two years in which policemen practiced the protection of those events in a very professional and respectable police manner.

We stress that the role of community policing and the partnership with citizen in security and police process is the most successful procedure applied by PSD. Community policing opened new contact channels with public and considered to be the most important priority in this vital stage of Jordan history.

PSD pays a great attention to the traffic problem, that Jordanians suffers from, because of its negative results on society, so that we all must unify our efforts and achieve the parallel traffic process to find the best solutions for the catastrophic results of accidents based on total national plan.

We stress the importance of training and qualifying the personnel of PSD to make them capable of performing their duties that get the citizens' satisfaction to keep Jordan as always the source of security under the Hashemite leadership.
